Another very pleasant social under the Presbyterian church management was held at the court house Wednesday night.

It is a pitiful and disgusting sight to see a candidate begging a voter not to vote against him. But it sometimes wins.

The case of Conley vs. the city of Iola, on which decision was delayed by the justice "until next Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock—after the election," was withdrawn by the plaintiff.

A surprise party at Mr. T. S. Stover's residence Thursday evening in honor of Miss Kapp was attended by numerous friends of that young lady. A very pleasant evening was enjoyed by those present.

It was rumored one day last week that Iola had a case of small pox but there was no foundation for the statement. We have not heard of a case in this section of country this winter, nearer than forty miles.

Geneva township elected township officers as follows: trustee, D. L. Warner; treasurer, Geo. Hall; clerk, H. N. Gray; justices, J. M. Mattson and H. Groesbeck; constables, Eugene Esse and Harry Newbro.

Township officers elected in Iola last Tuesday were: trustee, J. M. McDonald; treasurer, W. H. Richards; clerk, W. A. Cowan; justices, Jno. A. Christy and J. K. Boyd; constables, T. F. Strickland and John Arnett.

Township officers elected Tuesday in Marazion township are: trustee, Wm. Mattocks; clerk, A. B. Isaacs; treasurer, John Sapp; justices, J. T. Butterfield and Wm. Berry; constables, John Harderod and Jas. Strong.

Judge Talcott now owns one of these new-fashioned iron frame work buggies and it is a beauty in every respect. Most of the work was done at Hankins' shop in Iola, and reflects credit upon that establishment.

Unsolicited, the gentleman who stopped his paper last Saturday, renewed it again this week, after the first two pages were printed. It only confirms the good opinion we have always held in regard to him.

At the township election in Elmore the following officers were elected: Trustee, N. L. Ard; Treasurer, Sam'l Hibbs; Clerk, John Keen; Justices, Wm. Kennedy and E. H. Snodgrass; Constables, Lewis Hall and S. H. Judd.

That particularly bright hoodlum who is in the habit of emitting a loud and discordant whistle whenever the audience applauds at an entertainment, is respectfully invited to fill his mouth with soft mud, or some other substance, and thus oblige a suffering audience.

Mr. J. W. McClure has rented the room which has heretofore been used as the billiard hall adjoining his present quarters, and will connect the two rooms together, using both for the display of his goods. This will give him an abundance of room and avoid the fearfully cramped room he has had before.

By the Humboldt paper we see that the meeting at which was adopted the resolutions published elsewhere, was presided over by J. H. Sommers, chairman. Chas. Smith was elected secretary. Had their names appeared signed to the resolutions we should have published them last week. These resolutions were adopted at an anti-prohibition township convention in Humboldt, at which time a township ticket was nominated.

The subject at the M. E. Church next Sunday evening will be "Throwing Stones," and as we all throw them everybody ought to attend to hear what may be said on that subject. This announcement is not so much to draw a crowd as to present facts which, it is hoped, will do good. Every community is more or less guilty of this sin. And while Iola is no more so than other places yet the discussion of such a subject is not wholly out of place, even here.

We were shown at Bowlus' office last Wednesday a sheaf of blue grass raised on Mr. Townsend's farm, that was hard to beat for length. The longest green blade was exactly 48 inches. Three years ago Mr. T. purchased fifteen-cents worth of seed and it was sown on his place along a hedge row, and this springs from that first planting. This grass he brought to town was cut the 27th of last month, and we think clearly demonstrates that blue grass will successfully grow in this State. Mr. Townsend himself says that the land on which this grew was not of the best quality.
